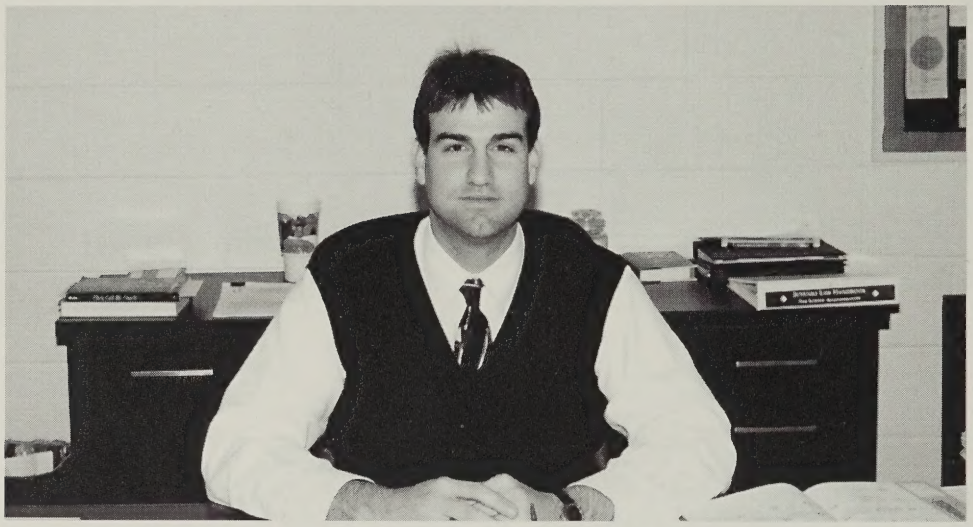
Administration



There are some very influential people at P.H.S. These are the people who care about the student body and how well they function during and also after school. Without these people, our everyday school life would be quite impossible to carry out. They encourage the students to always perform to the very best of their abilities and always strive for all around excellence. They also have to perform and carry out their jobs to the upmost of their abilities. Our student body could not find a more dedicated and caring principal than ours.

Thank you, Mr. Brewster, for all you have done for P.H.S.

LOOKING BACK

SENIORITIS!

Just yesterday we thought the time would never come.
Looking back on it now —
our senior year is almost done.
A change is about to take place —
but, for the good or for the bad?
The thoughts of the future
now only make us sad.
The days fly by quickly
as Commencements grow so near.
We try to show excitement,
when inside there's only fear.
The best days in our lives,
they've been shared with you, my friends,
Now how can we just sit
and watch it all come to an end?
The tears are now flowing,
the memories remain.
Looking back at what we leave behind:
it just won'be the same!
As we vow that we will stay in touch
we wonder if it's so.
As we turn and start to walk away:
running back, we can't let go.
The future stands before us
looking us right in the face,
What we do now is a lifetime:
only we can set the pace.
I'll look always behind me
to remember through the tears:
The best of times were spent with you all through our high school years.
I've but one wish for the future,
it's a wish for all of you.
I wish you health and happiness,
whatever you may do.

This poem is dedicated to the Class of '99, for all of the years and memories that we take with us as we part.

Throughout our years of school we have learned, we have changed, and we have matured. We have grown up. The class of 2000 thoroughly enjoyed our junior year, for we all bonded in our preparations for prom. Now we are prepared to embark on one of the most important journeys of our lives - our senior year. The class of 2000 is ready to take on the world.

Class of 2001

This was our second official year in high school. We have lost some old friends but gained new ones at the same time. We worked together this year and learned the importantance of unity in success. Harder classes and more responsibilities, have better prepared us for the future. We all want to wish the graduating class of 1999 the best of luck in the years to come.

Mrs. Smith,
The Pocahontas Band and Choir would like to thank you for all of your hard work, time, dedication, and energy. Though you have been here only a year, we feel as if you have been with us forever. We appreciate all that you have done for us and hope you have had as much fun as we have. Thank you for being our teacher, and most importantly, our friend.

SCA

The Student Council Association is the official governing body of the students at Pocahontas High School and is involved in school and community service projects.

Beta Club

Membership in this organization is based on the student's grades. This is a service-oriented club which promotes academic achievement. Each spring, the members attend the state convention.

FCA

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization that promotes good sportsmanship and fellowship among Christian athletes.

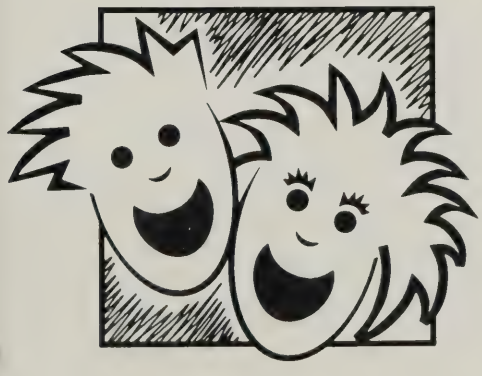
CADRE

Members of Cadre meet monthly to discuss school safety, the DARE program, and Prom Promise. They are also responsible for the organization of the DARE Jamboree.

FHA

FHA boosts self-confidence by helping members channel their enthusiasm and creativity into workable plans with attainable goals. It also encourages members to use their special skills during chapter activities.

Library Aides/ Office Assistants



Project Discovery

Project Discovery has basically the same standards and goals as Upward Bound. Students may not participate in both. Project Discovery is a county-run project.

Talent Search

This program provides qualifying students with information on colleges and universities, assistance in applying for financial aid, and tutoring in different subjects. Tutorials meet twice monthly on campus at Virginia Tech.

Upward Bound

Upward Bound is a program designed to help students complete high school, choose a career, and pursue a college education. It also provides qualifying students with information on colleges and universities.

Voice of Democracy

The Voice of Democracy essay contest was a school-held event in which students were asked to exhibit their voice in our democracy. The winners were honored at the VFW in Bluefield, VA.

Ecology Club

The purpose of the Ecology Club Club is to promote awareness of the environment and man's impact on it. The club is chartered through the Virginia Division of Litter Control and is affiliated with NEED.

Math Club

The purpose of the Math Club is to enjoy math. Students work with puzzles, computer software, and graphing calculators. The high school members are usually on the math academic team.

The 1998 Pocahontas Football team can be defined by these two words, 'Never Quit.' This group of young men worked hard from start to finish. There was not one game that they did not feel they could not win. Their heart and determination was displayed in each game win or lose. This team showed character on and off the field. They were truly and example of what Pocahontas Athletics are all about. I am proud of the team's accomplishments as well as the individual awards.

The 1999 Varsity Volleyball team had its best season ever in the history of the sport at Pocahontas, with 9 victories and a trip to the District Semifinals. With four-year starters Jessica Moore and Angel Roberts, who were honored on the All-District team, providing a solid nucleus this year's squad, enjoyed victories over powerhouses such as Tazewell, Narrows, and Fort Chiswell. Junior Sherena Farthing also was honored as an Honorable Mention All-District player. This team, along with the promising J.V. players, should be a team to dominate in the future.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so a hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.
— Robert Frost

Saying Goodbye

Saying goodbye is hard to try,
Telling a friend farewell and trying not to cry.
It seems there isn't enough time for this final meeting,
And you wish that it was the first greeting.
Sometimes after the person is gone away
You hope they will return another day.
Though the pain surfaces through your eyes,
Why is it the strong person who always cries?
— Gerald Biggerstaff

How do we say goodbye to a person that means so much to everyone?

Senior Farewells

Here we are again!!

Congratulations Travis,
Seems like only yesterday that you started out to school.
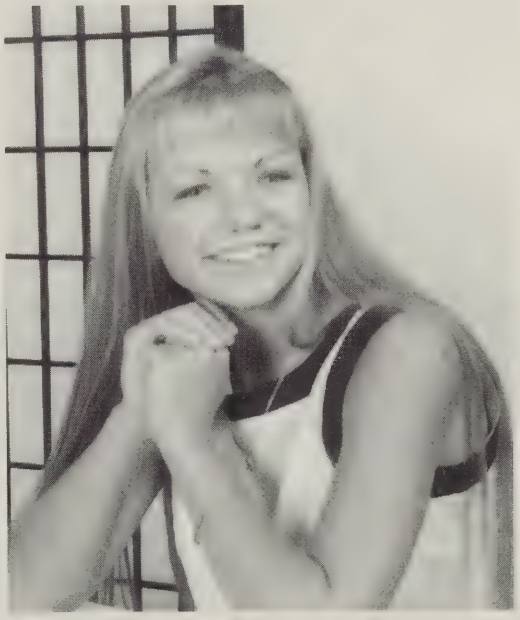
Now it's time to graduate.
Keep up the good work.
We are very proud of you.
May God bless you always.
With love,
Mom, Dad, and Amanda

Amanda,
You have always made us so proud. I hope you will continue to be the best you can be, and always set your goals high.
May God bless you with good health, love, happiness, and success.
We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Family

Steven,
Your serious mother: I wish you holiness, not happiness. (Think about it)
Your practical dad: Keep the lines of communication between us.
Your "rugrat" siblings: Congratulations! We love you.

Wendy,
It seems like just yesterday you were so small standing up against our kitchen wall. But today you've grown. Reach out and strive hard to make your dreams come true. We're behind you in ALL you do. Just remember to keep your 26 cents with you always. We love you! Congratulations on all you have achieved.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Travis, & Ike



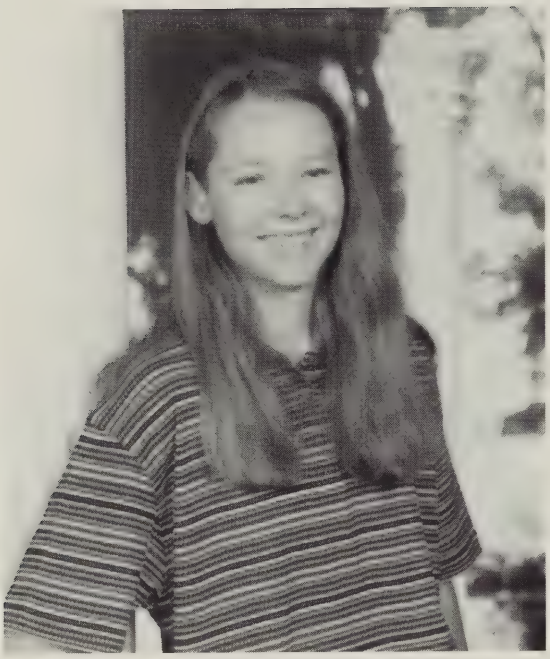
From the start to the finish we've supported you all the way. Thank you for being a wonderful daughter. May you continue to grow in grace and love.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Chris,
Whether you played a game of football that you loved,
Or studied for a test that you hated,
You still worked hard and made us proud.
Now you're achieving a mighty special goal,But there's still a lot ahead-
A future that is full of promise and hope-
Travel through life with our love and pride in your heart-
You've earned it.
God bless you, Son- we love you,
Mom, Dad, and Davy

Shawn,
Congratulations!! The time has come for you to graduate. It seems like yesterday that you were only four and in preschool. Time has passed by too fast for us. You have made us very proud over the years. Your smile and mischieviousness has touched our hearts. You have excelled in academics and sports. Shawn, you can be whatever you choose to be. Whatever path you choose to follow, we will always be there supporting and encouraging you. We love you Shawn very much. God surely blessed us with a son as talented as you. May God bless and keep you always.
Love,
Dad, Mom, & Joshua

Together as parents, we feel very fortunate having a dear son like you. We will cherish forever wonderful memories of you growing up from one year to another. Keep God in your life and our love in your heart, together you'll get the best that life has to offer.
We love you son.
Mom, Dad, & Jill

Jaime,
Congratulations! We are so very proud of you and everything that you have accomplished these 6 years at Pocahontas High School. It has been a pleasure watching you grow into the lovely person that you are today. As you begin you life, Daddy and I want you to know that we love you very much and will support you in anything that you decide to do. Remember, there are places to go and things to see-Listen to your Heart and things will always work out! We wish you the best life has to offer!
Mom, Dad and Kelly



Roo,
Congratulations on a job well done! May God bless your life with the love and happiness that you have brought into our lives. We're so proud of you and we will always love you.
Love,
Mom, Dad and Ricky

Pamela,
Congratulations on your many accomplishments. With your positive attitude and focus, you will succeed at what ever you do.
We Love You!
Mom, Dad, and Donna
